

OPPORTUNITY EAST

Introduction to Community Services

Opportunity East and SpringDale Neighbourhood Centre are bringing the Introduction to Community Services free of charge to Drysdale.

The community services sector is growing and there is high demand across Victoria for community workers. People who work in the community sector enjoy helping others and are able to communicate well with different types of people in varied settings. This Pre-accredited courses is a great way to get an introduction into an area you may be interested in.

YOU WILL LEARN ABOUT

- Professional communication skills
- Client confidentiality
- What to expect when you study community services
- Self-reflective practice
- Case note documentation and more.

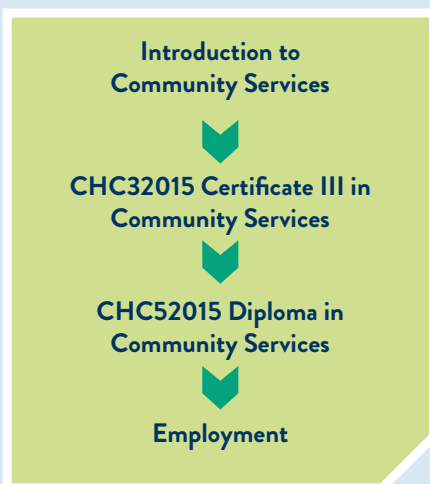

WHEN:

Monday, Wednesday and Thursday
9.30-12.30pm for 3 weeks

Starting October 14th 2019

WHERE:

SpringDale Neighbourhood Centre
17-21 High Street
Drysdale

This project is funded by the Adult and Community Further Education (ACFE) Board, Capability and Innovation Fund. Pre-accredited training delivered by Learn Local providers is recognised by the Commonwealth Department of Jobs and Small Business (DJSB) as an 'Other Government Program' and counts towards job seeker Annual Activity Requirements (AAR).
